

Celebrating & Exploring Locally Grown and Produced Food
SEPTEMBER 2010 • SLAITHWAITE

Produce Swap & Information Market

The Round Car park, Slaithwaite and along Carr Lane

Sunday 12 September 1-4 pm. Free.

Swap your surplus Vegetables, Fruits, Jams, Seeds and Seedlings and find out about the local food initiatives and producers in your area.

Local businesses The Handmade Bakery, The Green Valley Grocer and Vanilla Bean will be open for the afternoon.

Come and enjoy the harvest!

“Food Inc” Film Screening and Audience Debate

You'll never look at food in the same way again!

Slaithwaite Community Centre, 6-9pm Saturday September 11

(£3.50 on the door - includes 1 free drink)

Introduction to Permaculture

A look at the ethics and principles of permaculture and how you can use them in every day life.

12-2pm Saturday Sept 11, upstairs at The Commercial

High Altitude Gardening

Ben Campbell, anthropologist and smallholder, on using Himalayan farming techniques in the Pennines.

3-4pm Saturday Sept 11, upstairs at The Commercial

‘Feeding the Valley’

Find out more about how to increase your production to supply local demand.

Pig co-ops, community farming and more.

noon-1pm, Sunday Sept 12, upstairs at The Commercial

Free Family Foraging Walk

Look for edible plants and berries and join in some family fun!

Meet at Rotcher picnic site car park at 10 am

Sunday 12th Sept 10-2pm

So You Think You Would Like To Become a Beekeeper

An introductory evening for potential beekeepers.

To reserve your place call Paul on 01484 845219 or Yvonne on 07876 618071. Organised by the

Huddersfield Beekeepers Association

www.britishbee.org.uk/local/huddersfield

7.30 - 9.30pm Wednesday Sept 8, Slaithwaite

Methodist Church, Carr Lane, Slaithwaite, £2.50

more details at www.colnevalleyfoodfestival.co.uk

the handmade bakery

greenvalleygrocer

MAST
Marsden & Slaithwaite Transition Towns